RELEVANT STATUTES

7. I have been informed by the United States Attorney's Office, Western District of New York, that:

- a. Title 18, United States Code section 922(a)(1)(A), provides that it shall be unlawful for any person:

except a licensed importer, licensed manufacturer, or licensed dealer, to engage in the business of importing, manufacturing, or dealing in firearms, or in the course of such business to ship, transport, or receive any firearm in interstate or foreign commerce.

The elements are:

- The defendant was not licensed to deal firearms; and
- The defendant willfully engaged in the business of dealing firearms.

To prosecute an unlicensed individual for unlawfully dealing in firearms under 18 U.S.C. § 922(a)(1)(A), the government must prove, among other things, that the person who engaged in such activity had an economic objective and “pursue[d] this objective through the repetitive purchase and resale of firearms.” United States v. Tyson, 653 F.3d 192, 200-01 (3d Cir. 2011). The Second Circuit in United States v. Nadirashvili, 655 F.3d 114, 119 (2d Cir. 2011):

We have held that: [t]he government need not prove that dealing in firearms was the defendant’s primary business. Nor is there a ‘magic number’ of sales that need be specifically proven. Rather, the statute reaches those who hold themselves out as a source of firearms. Consequently, the government need only prove that the defendant has guns on hand or is ready and able to procure them for the purpose of selling them from [time] to time to such persons as might be accepted as customers. United States v. Carter, 801 F.2d 78, 81–82 (2d Cir.1986) (internal quotation marks and citations omitted).

Courts have consistently held that selling as few as two or four firearms is sufficient to sustain a conviction under Section 922(a)(1)(A). See, e.g., United States v. Shan, 361 Fed. Appx. 182, 183-84 (2d Cir. 2010) (unpub.) (sufficient evidence defendant was “engaged in the business” of firearms dealing where he “sold two firearms within roughly one month,” “acknowledged . . . he had a source of supply for other weapons,” and “acted willfully” by being “wary to let others witness his transactions” and by selling “weapons for above market price”); United States v. Pineda, 411 Fed. Appx. 612, 614 (4th Cir. 2011) (unpub.) (sufficient evidence to sustain conviction under Section 922(a)(1)(A) where defendant sold four firearms without a license).

b. Title 18, United States Code section 924(b), provides:

Whoever, with intent to commit therewith an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, or with knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year is to be committed therewith, ships, transports, or receives a firearm or any ammunition in interstate commerce shall be [guilty of a crime].

The elements of 924(b) are:

- First, that the defendant transported or shipped a firearm in interstate commerce; and
- Second, that defendant transported and shipped the firearm with the intent to commit the crime or with knowledge that the crime would be committed or with reasonable cause to believe that the crime be committed with the firearm.

See 2 Modern Federal Jury Instructions-Criminal P 35.13, Instruction 35-82 (2022); see also United States v. Tyson, 653 F.3d 192 (3d Cir. 2011).¹

c. Title 18, United States Code section 933, provides that it is unlawful for any

Criminal possession of a firearm.

A person is guilty of criminal possession of a firearm when he or she:

(1) possesses any firearm or; (2) lawfully possesses a firearm prior to The effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand thirteen which added this section subject to the registration requirements of subdivision sixteen-a of section 400.00 of this chapter and knowingly fails to register such firearm pursuant to such subdivision.

Criminal possession of a firearm is a class E felony.

person to:

- (1) ship, transport, transfer, cause to be transported, or otherwise dispose of any firearm to another person in or otherwise affecting interstate or foreign commerce, if such person knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the use, carrying, or possession of a firearm by the recipient would constitute a felony (as defined in section 932(a));
- (2) receive from another person any firearm in or otherwise affecting interstate or foreign commerce, if the recipient knows or has reasonable cause to believe that such receipt would constitute a felony; or
- (3) attempt or conspire to commit the conduct described in paragraph (1) or (2).

Under the attempt prong, the elements are the following:

- That the defendant intended to ship, transport, transfer, cause to be transported or dispose of a firearm to another person in or otherwise affecting interstate commerce.
- That the defendant knew or had reasonable cause to believe that the use, carrying or possession of the firearm by the other person (recipient) would constitute a felony

Under the conspiracy prong, the elements are the following:

- That two or more persons agreed to try to accomplish a common and unlawful plan, as charged in the indictment; and,
- That the defendant knew the unlawful purpose of the agreement and joined in it willfully, that is, with the intent to further the unlawful purpose.

As a result of this investigation, the DEA has interviewed several confidential sources, cooperating witnesses, as well as law enforcement officers working in the greater Jamestown, NY area. During its investigation, the DEA has identified CRISTIAN ARROYO COLLAZO as an individual associated with multiple Jamestown drug traffickers/users.

9. During this investigation, your Affiant has learned that CRISTIAN ARROYO COLLAZO is a Pennsylvania resident with a date of birth of 02/XX/1996. ARROYO COLLAZO has a suspended Pennsylvania Driver's License, and an address in New Castle, Pennsylvania. Additionally, your Affiant conducted a criminal history query for CRISTIAN ARROYO COLLAZO, which resulted in a positive response. Based on your Affiant's review, your Affiant identified an arrest and a violation of the Controlled Substance, Drug, Device, and Cosmetic Act and Firearms Carried without a License in Pennsylvania on or about October 28, 2022.

10. On or about November 1, 2021, the Jamestown Police Department (JPD) conducted a vehicle traffic stop of a 2004 Ford Expedition containing one occupant, Steven Mojica Medina. A second JPD officer was requested to assist due to an apparent language barrier. JPD requested Mojica Medina to exit the vehicle due to erratic driving, deceitful explanation of where he was going when questioned at the initiation of the stop, a multiple cell phones observed by the officer at the initial encounter. After exiting the vehicle, a JPD officer observed a loaded hypodermic syringe located on the driver's seat where Mojica Medina was sitting. JPD officers observed Mojica Medina's eyes to be red indicative of narcotic use and a large bulge emitting from the front of Mojica Medina, inside his jacket on the right side. Mojica Medina was then placed in handcuffs and a pat down was conducted to ensure Mojica Medina was not concealing a firearm. The JPD officer immediately felt a large circular item, Mojica Medina admitted when asked that "it's a drum." The drum was seized and later determined to contain 54 9mm rounds. Mojica Medina was then asked, "do you have a gun on you?" Mojica Medina replied, "it's under the seat." A search of Mojica Medina's vehicle yielded a Glock 19 Gen 4 9mm handgun (serial number TKW485), which was loaded with a round in the chamber, and a loaded 29 round magazine attached. The handgun was concealed between the driver's seat and the center console. JPD officers also located additional 9mm magazines in the center console, which were loaded with 9mm ammunition. One magazine contained 15 rounds, one magazine contained 14 rounds, one magazine contained 31 rounds, and one magazine contained 22 rounds. JPD informed Mojica Medina that he was under arrest and was subsequently searched incident to arrest. During the search of Mojica Medina, JPD located 24 individual bags of a powder substance, which JPD determined to contain a total of 9.1 grams of cocaine, and $1311 in cash. A continued search of the vehicle by JPD located a black Gamo rifle sight, Blackhawk holster, one 9mm round, 21 plastic baggies with residue and two hypodermic syringes located in a backpack on the center console. JPD additionally determined that due to Mojica Medina's previous criminal conviction of Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the 5th Degree in New York State (a felony) that he is a convicted felon in possession of a firearm.

On or about November 3, 2021, Mojica Medina was federally charged with drug and firearm violations relating to his state arrest on November 1, 2021, by the DEA. See Case No. 21-mj-171-HKS (WDNY).

11. On or about November 2, 2021, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives (ATF) requested a firearms trace report from the ATF of the firearm recovered from Steven Mojica Medina on November 1, 2021. On November 16, 2021, the ATF completed their Firearms Trace Summary report (Trace Number: T20210481693) indicating the firearm recovered from Mojica Medina to be a Glock GMBH, Model 19, Caliber 9, Serial Number TKW485. The report also indicated that the firearm was purchased by ARROYO COLLAZO on March 18, 2021, from Duke's FFL located in New Castle, Pennsylvania.

12. On or about February 14, 2022, the Jamestown Police Department (JPD) conducted a vehicle traffic stop of a Gray Chrysler 300 containing two occupants, R.M. (driver) and Jamere Maisonet (front passenger). During the stop, the driver of the vehicle claimed that she did not have identification or a license. A JPD officer on scene witnessed furtive movement and movement by both individuals towards each other for the center console. The officer also noticed a purse that was tipped over facing the backseat that was up against the center console. Both individuals were asked to exit the vehicle. R.M. was uncooperative at first, but ultimately exited the vehicle. Maisonet voluntarily exited the vehicle. During a search of reachable areas in the vehicle, a .40 caliber Glock 43 with serial number BTET684 was discovered. A magazine that had a capacity of 22 rounds was loaded into the firearm that contained 13 rounds in the magazine and 1 round in the chamber. This firearm was seized by JPD and both individuals were charged with Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the Second Degree. On or about January 31, 2023, Jamere Maisonet was arrested federally for narcotics sale and distribution by the Federal Bureau of Investigation following an investigation by the JPD into Maisonet's drug trafficking activities. See Case No. 23-mj-5038-MJR (WDNY).

13. On or about February 14, 2022, the Federal Bureau of Investigation requested a firearms trace report from the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms (ATF) of the firearm recovered from Jamere Maisonet on February 14, 2022. On March 04, 2022, the ATF completed their Firearms Trace Summary report (Trace Number: T20220074319) indicating the firearm recovered from Jamere Maisonet to be a Glock GMBH, Model 23, Caliber 40, Serial Number BTET684. The report also indicated that the firearm was purchased by ARROYO COLLAZO on June 24, 2021, from Nesbit Guns located in New Castle, Pennsylvania. The Firearms Trace Summary also stated that the firearm was modified and capable of firing fully automatic (a fully automatic firearm is one that has the ability to fire multiple rounds when depressing the trigger one time).

14. On or about March 23, 2022, CRISTIAN ARROYO COLLAZO was interviewed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation at the Jamestown Police Department (JPD) regarding the firearm recovered from Jamere Maisonet on February 14, 2022. ARROYO COLLAZO reported voluntarily for this interview along with an associate of his to assist in translation. During this interview, in sum and substance, ARROYO COLLAZO stated that he purchased the Glock pistol seized by JPD last year in Pennsylvania.

ARROYO COLLAZO stated that four of five weeks after purchasing it, he sold it to an individual in Jamestown, NY for $1000. ARROYO COLLAZO stated that he was supposed to complete a transfer at the gun store but did not know the name of the person he sold the gun to. The person he sold the gun to was referred to him by someone in the neighborhood. ARROYO COLLAZO stated that he knew it was illegal to sell the gun this way, but he did not fully understand the sale and transfer of a firearm. ARROYO COLLAZO identified a photograph of the firearm provided during the interview and subsequently identified Jamere Maisonet as the individual to whom he sold the firearm after seeing the JPD press release regarding the arrests on February 14, 2022. ARROYO COLLAZO stated that he did not alter the firearm to fire in a fully automatic manner. ARROYO COLLAZO stated that he sold another firearm to a Jamestown resident about 14 months ago from the interview and that person was arrested one or two days after the sale. ARROYO COLLAZO did not know the name of the person who purchased this firearm.

15. On May 1, 2022, the Erie, Pennsylvania Police Department (EPD) conducted a vehicle stop of a black Alfa Romero. Upon contact with the driver, EPD officers immediately noticed a strong odor of marijuana emitting from the vehicle. The operator of the vehicle was determined to be R.S. EPD officers questioned R.S. and returned to their vehicle to conduct record checks. At this time, R.S. accelerated at a high rate of speed away from EPD officers while he was still detained upon the initiation of the traffic stop. EPD officers pursued R.S., observing R.S. commit multiple PA Title 75 violations. During the pursuit, R.S. was observed walking across the sidewalk and was immediately placed in custody. A package containing a green leafy material was recovered from R.S.'s pocket.

The vehicle driven by R.S. was located a short time later by EPD officers. On May 2, 2022, EPD was dispatched to the area of Fairmount Parkway and Bird Drive for a report of a found pistol. The area where the firearm was recovered was determined to be in the same area as the pursuit with R.S. and EPD believed the firearm to in relation to that pursuit. The firearm was determined to be a black Springfield Armory XD chambered in 9mm with 15 rounds in the magazine. After recovering the firearm, EPD spoke to R.S. at the Erie Police Station where R.S. consented to a buccal swab to collect DNA. A forensic request was completed to have the buccal swab tested for DNA related to the pistol. To your Affiant's knowledge, the results of this test are still pending.

16. On or about May 2, 2022, the EPD requested a firearms trace report from the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms (ATF) of the firearm recovered on May 2, 2022 and believed to be associated with R.S. and his arrest by EPD on May 1, 2022. On May 2, 2022, the ATF completed their Firearms Trace Summary report (Trace Number: T20220216194) indicating the recovered firearm was a HS Produkt (In Metal), Model XD9, Caliber 9, Serial Number BY476890 and was purchased by ARROYO COLLAZO on June 11, 2021, from Nesbit Guns located in New Castle, Pennsylvania.

- j. Based on my training and experience, and information learned during the investigation, your Affiant believes this conversation is firearms trafficking related. Your Affiant believes that based on the conversation that ARROYO COLLAZO is contacting J.H. in the hopes of selling J.H. what appears to be two AR style rifles and what appears to be a Glock handgun. ARROYO COLLAZO indicates that the first AR he sends photos of on or about August 29, 2022, is $1,300, the Glock is $1,200, and the last AR style rifle he sends a photo is $1,000. Your Affiant believes this conversation shows ARROYO COLLAZO negotiating and attempting to sell a firearm to a New York State resident.

20. Based on your Affiant's training and experience, information learned during the investigation, and conversations with other officers, your Affiant believes that CHRISTIAN ARROYO COLLAZO is in the business of unlicensed firearms dealing. ARROYO COLLAZO is principally located in the state of Pennsylvania, where he has purchased at least several firearms. It appears ARROYO COLLAZO has sold or transferred and attempted to sell or transfer several firearms to Jamestown-based drug traffickers and New York residents (some of which your Affiant has learned have criminal convictions). Additionally, as evidenced above, ARROYO COLLAZO has already acknowledged that his firearms dealing as of at least February 2021 was of an illicit nature. It appears that based on his Facebook activities, he has continued, nonetheless.

21. In addition, ARROYO COLLAZO has stated in the Facebook messages that he was in the city Jamestown, New York indicating that he is traveling between Pennsylvania and New York.

22. WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, your affiant respectfully submits that probable cause exists to believe that ARROYO COLLAZO violated Title 18, United States Code, Sections 922(a)(1)(A) (unlicensed dealing) 924(b) (interstate shipment and transportation of firearms), and 933(a)(3) (firearms trafficking), requests that a Criminal Complaint and Arrest Warrant as aforesaid is issued, , and that this Complaint and Affidavit to be sealed based on a continuing investigation and further Order of this Court.
